Description

Welcome to the ultimate kitchen for the completely hardcore gamer! After years of playing games like Burgertime, Pressure Cooker, I am the Cook, Diner, and more, we here at StuBoy Appliances and Grievances have finally designed the greatest kitchen to ever occupy a house. We all have to eat and wash clothes sometime, so why not do it in style....GAMER style?

Not even the Sim fanboys could create a place of worship like this, let's get started!

SCAE FridgeStation 2

Tired of all those other refrigerators over-heating on you? Wishing your ice cube maker would stop taking 20 minutes just to load an ice cube? Well stop crying and check out our newest model FridgeStation 2, Model 70,001K!

Our newest design now supports a quieter motor, remote control support for those who like to fill their water glasses from a distance, and now features over 800 different shelving styles to fit your storage needs. The FS2 is available in standard black, or for an extra $100 to the final bid, we'll custom paint your FS2 to one of 6 colors.

Guaranteed no DRE! (Door Repair Emergency)

Watch for our slimmer FStoo coming next year; it will have all the same features, except it will drop support for the ice maker, since no one really uses that anyway. Either way, it'll keep your John Hardies and Jack Daniels cold!

Can Opener Advance - Glacier Edition

The COA is one of our newest models of can openers, and boy are we excited! Not only does the COA handle all the new can formats in the market today, but it opens every other can style that has come before it! Featuring a built-in screen for measuring distance-till-open, can weight, and even special recipes if the can supports the Downloadable recipe function. You can combine the COA with the DC below for even more added features!

Some of the best cans for the item are green beans and chunk-y corn.

*Can of beans not included in this auction, and I certainly don't support Bush...who...as my gramma would say, "Doesn't know beans."

Dish Cube - Indigo/Silver Edition

Now we're talking fun! Brought to us by the Nintendish company, the Dish Cube is every parent's dream machine. Take all those filthy, dirty, and foul looking dishes you don't want the kids touching, and toss them into the Dish Cube to turn them into clean, sparkling kid-friendly dishes! All DC machines come with a upgrade option to clean the pots and pans that normally would not fit in it! Known as the Pot n Pan Player, it attached to the bottom of the Dish Cube, and is available in every color the DC is, plus orange.

As a bonus, we'll provide you with the cable that links the DC to the COA featured above. Once connected, you can verify proper washing temperatures, soap levels, and even download mini-games to play on your COA while the dishes are drying!

We suggest using Shingo brand dishwashing detergent.

The BBQ GrafX Engine (Japanese Import)

Tired of having to lug out your huge grill just to make a few burgers? Well drag no more, we are including the newest version of the BBQ GrafX! Able to make 6 burgers in a single sitting, this baby is sure to make any backyard gourmet feast a Super one!

Grill includes grease drip pan, and optional CD player cable, and NASA Shuttle passes. Why? No clue, the Japanese designers at ScooterB are wacky like that.

SACE PFmixer

All right you Jimmy Buffet fans, now's your chance at really drifting away to Margaritaville! The new miniature ProcessorFood Mixer condenses our original gray model into a smaller, more convenient package with a sporty new look. 32 Bits of electronic power get the blades spinning, with user-friendly controls, optional speed setting sticks, and both start/stop functions, you're looking at the pinnacle of the mixing world. The high bidder will receive a free recipe book containing 1270+ entries so you can truly get 100% use out of your new toy.

Fans of the Perkar-matic Coffe grinder know of this product's success.

LCD Screen Optional.

The MicroWave X

Are you tired of wearing the innocent halo over your head when someone asks you if you microwaved their meal? With the new X from Gates, Inc, you'll never have to fear the wrath again! Built with an internal hard drive full of recipes and timer settings, the X can nuke anything it touches and still make it taste like it was oven cooked! an Xcook Live account comes standard with the machine so you can trade recipes and timer variations with other hard core microwavers.

X features a special power light that turns red if something is burning, and orange if there is a cord unplugged. Even the most biased chef will shout "ULALA!" at this box.

SCAC OvenX

A limited release in the oven rage category is the OvenX by SCAC. The OX takes all the features of the original but adds a huge visual screen for watching your favorite cooking show, as well as a DVD burner so you can store your favorite episodes for life.

There's also a built in TVoi that allows you to truly be a cooking 'vegetable'.

This particular unit also supports accessories made for the FS2, so you never get 'burned'.

Often seen on the Food Channel staple show "Kooking with Katchoo."

The ToasterQ

NOW we're talking TOASTY! The ToasterQ is the most advanced toaster on the planet! Supporting up to 4 slices, a bagel toaster tray, and even a separate remote that allows the user to pop his toast at will from the table.

A brilliant turquoise LCD reads off temperature and timing selections, and features to Butter Pat ports for instant condiment pleasure! Users can even store their favorite jams and jellies in the port below.

The Mega Dryer and Washer mk2

New design with classic technology! Created by the GeSa Corporation, the Mega Dryer and Washer sit side by side, connected by a small port in the back. You can wash up to 16 lbs of laundry at a single time. A brilliant green LCD allows users to program their temperatures, wash cycles, fabric softners, and more. There are volume, controls as well, for...um....well, if you want to listen to your laundry. Towels by Portnoyd Productions.

All items are pick up only, and if you do pick them up, all you will get is a laugh in the face because they don't exist. I made them all up! Now go back to playing your Crystal Pepsi and leave me alone. :)

This auction is not to be bid on. It's fake.
