Description

THERE IS NO RESERVE ON THIS AUCTION!

You are bidding on an awesome classic gaming item, the preserved stool of Pac-Man himself! Very rare and hard to obtain, this environmentally safe Pac-Man biproduct has been hand-gathered and now is offered for purchase here on eBay!

History

As many people know, Pac-Man from Namco is one of the most successful games EVER created. It has been in continuous print for about 20 years, and is incredibly popular, even today. What you may NOT know is that there was a bi-product that's released from ALL Pac-Man games. It turns out that every time you play Pac-Man and he eats a certain number of dots, the game actually creates a physical manifestation of those dots because of the way the code processes Pac-Man's digestive system. If you open up enough Pac-Man arcade machines, you can find these Pac-Man "feces" in many of them!

I have been opening up Pac-Man arcade games and console cartridges for years, and have stockpiled a small fortune in Pac-Man leavings, a small part of which is being offered up here today. Also, it is interesting to note that while the dots are excreted in one form, the ghost skins come out as an entirely different form altogether. The candy "Runts" are actually the solidified leavings of undigested Pac-Man fruits, remarketed as a candy! The packing material called "packing peanuts" is also known as "ghost turds" because of it's origins from the inside of old Pac-Man arcade machines. In fact, all "Runts" and packing peanuts are the leavings of old Pac-Man games, and this secret is carefully guarded by the manufacturers who secretly harvest these old games in covert warehouses.

Information

You will be receiving verified Pac-Man leavings as the winner of this auction. These leavings are environmentally sound, but are not edible. Please to not try to ingest any Pac-Man leavings. The excrement varies in color due to the fact that some Pac-Man arcade machines have monitor problems. If you have black Pac stool, the game that they came from had a dead monitor. If they are red or green, than the RGB monitor had problems with the other colors and was tinted that color when Pac-Man excreted them. This auction does not include any fruit excreted by Pac-Man, but that is easily bought at any candy aisle.

Verification

As Pac-Man is not an organic being, it is legal to sell his leavings on eBay. They will not harm anyone and are guaranteed 100% clean. You may check them against other Pac-Man stool samples you may be able to find in Pac-Man arcade machines. I do not claim any responsibility for amateurs who try to gather the stool of a wild Pac-Man. The sample of Pac-Man excrement will be sealed in a plastic bag before shipping. Pictures are of the actual items you will receive.
