Description

Well sadly enough, 3 days after my dog died i went to clean out my old NWC(nintendo world championship) cartridge since i had heard some pieces rattling around inside it. and obviously i have gamer hands and not technician hands. which comes from hours and hours of playing super dodge ball and bomberman 2, games like that and you can't forget LOLO 3, TMNT Tournament Fighters, and Bubble Bobble Part II, Hot Slots, Peek-a-boo Poker, and Bubble Bath Babes.....the list goes on forever with a release list reaching well over 700 in the US only. of which i own every single one.....but back to the matter at hand. like i was saying, my dog bit the dust.....so i'm rummaging through my NES crap and i find this cart with rattles. so i'm taking it apart with my new 3.8 mm Security bit that i bought on ebay. and i take it apart and find 2 pieces of plastic that are found on the inside of the nintendo world championship cart and while i was holding the two pieces i heard a dog run into the room and it just scared the heebe jeebies right outta me.....i dropped half of the cartridge and wouldn't you know these junky things break like glass, so you get what i have for auction here today. 5 special edition, never to be found again, pieces of plastic. this is the real deal from my nintendo world championship cartridge. i cant believe i broke it but to cover some of my great investment in this piece.....i'm forced to sell it.....piece by piece. shipping in the US will be $5 + insurance and you will want it on something like this. this is a once in a lifetime opportunity, i'm 100% sure you'll never again find plastic this worthy of owning, so chip in and get your plastic today. this is your ticket to self stardom.

Anybody can make offers before the auction is closed. Remember also, this auction is for the items described only, you don't receive the two FACTORY SEALED nintendo games with perfect shrinkwrap in the background or any of the valuable pieces of paper lying around it or the pen or the letter from my friend in the US Air Force or the package of contact repair that shows in the far corner of the picture, YOU DONT RECEIVE THOSE ITEMS. Thanks for looking at my auction and happy bidding!

The five pieces for auction are right in front of the FACTORY SEALED copy of Kung Fu for NES and the picture was taken next to this to depict size only. if you would like to buy the FACTORY SEALED copy of Heavy Shreddin' or Metal Gear with perfect shrinkwrap or any of the other FACTORY SEALED games i have on my endless NES list you can email me and we can discuss it further.

Check out my other auctions for the 2 remaining pieces i found bouncing around inside the cart.
