

Salute! to the hero of H.E.R.O.

We wish to acknowledge your boundless bravery. Your extraordinary courage has not gone unnoticed. It's not often that we come across such a fearless resourceful rescuer, battling against incredible odds.

You scored 75,000 points! You saved countless trapped miners, battled against lethal critters and venomous snakes--and with your trusty microlaser beam blasted through bubbling lava walls in the most treacherous mineshaft ever encountered.

Please accept this prestigious emblem and join the ranks with Roderick Hero in the Order of the Helicopter Emergency Rescue Operation. Wear it with great pride!

In addition to the recognition for your valorous achievement, you will also be put on our mailing list to receive vital information on upcoming software from Activision.

With utmost praise,

Jan Marsella
Heroine of the Order of H.E.R.O.
