USING MENUS

You use menus to choose games and special features.

GAME MODE MENU

Use the Game Mode menu to choose a game, as follows:

1. Press Start to open the main menu.
2. Press ▼ or ▲ and A to select a Game Mode:
   - Tournament - Qualify in 8-Ball or 9-Ball and make it to the World Championship!
   - Challenge - One player can practice six games and pool skills, such as shooting, speed, accuracy, and touch.
   - Party - Up to eight players can party down with fun games and special game features.
   - Freestyle - Make up your own games! Drag balls for a unique rack or place them anywhere for a trick shot.

If you choose Freestyle, you go directly to the pool table. For other modes, more screens appear to help you set up the game you want to play.

4. Press ▼ or ▲ and A to select an option.

MAIN MENU

From any game, you can press Start to open the Main Menu. Press ▼ or ▲ and A to select an option, including:

- Move Cue Ball - Available whenever you have "ball in hand." See glossary
- Show/Hide Numbers - In an overhead view shows or hides numbers on object balls.
- Game Control - Open the Game Control menu.
- Actions - Open the Actions menu.
- Back to Game - Return to the game in progress.
CHAMPIONSHIP POOL

ACTIONS MENU

From the Main Menu, you can press ▼ or ▲ and A to open the Actions menu, which includes these options:

- Special Actions - You can Call a Safety, Reject and Break, or return to the game in progress. See the Glossary.
- Insta-Win - In Party mode you can declare yourself an insta-winner return to the game in progress. See the Glossary.
- View Replay - Watch an Instant Replay of the last shot.
- Scoreboard - See player score for the game in progress. Not available in Freestyle.
- Leave (or End) - End current mode. At the "Are you sure?" prompt, choose Yes.
- Back to Game - Return to the game in progress.

GAME CONTROL MENU

From the Main Menu, you can press ▼ or ▲ and A to open the Game Control menu, which includes these options:

- Move Balls Around - Use the Control Pad and A to select a ball, then use the same control to place the ball. This option is only available in Freestyle.
- Spot Balls - Spot balls which were sunk on the previous shot, or spot the lowest numbered ball that has been sunk. This option is only available in Freestyle.
- Set Power - Adjust the power of your shot. See Special Features.
- Set Spin - Adjust the spin of your cue ball. See Special Features.
- Zoom In/Out - Same as pressing Select to change the table view between overhead and closeup.
- Jukebox - Turn music on or off.
- Back to Game - Return to the game in progress.
SPECIAL FEATURES

Championship Pool includes two special features that are described in this section: Set Power and Set Spin.

SET POWER

On the Game Control menu, press ▼ or ▲ and A to choose Set Power and open the power meter.

1. Press ▶ and ◄ to set the power of the shot.
2. Press A to go back to the game.

SET SPIN

On the Game Control menu, press ▼ or ▲ and A to choose Set Spin and open the spin meter.

1. Press ▶ and ◄ and ▲ and ▼ to set where the cue hits the ball.
2. Press A to go back to the game.
Here is the standard layout of a pool table with the pockets numbered for reference.

For definitions of the parts of a pool table, see the Glossary.

Note: The strings are imaginary lines that do not appear on your NES screen.
CLOSEUP VIEW

Before you start shooting, press Select to see a closeup view of the pool table.

While in the closeup view, you can look around the table without moving the cursor. To do this, hold down the Select button while pressing ▲▼▲ or ▼. To move the cursor, just use the Control pad.

CALLING A SHOT

In some games you must call a shot – say which ball you are going to sink in which pocket. In a call-shot game, you can’t shoot until you call both your ball and pocket. In these games, two arrows appear on screen to show the current call. To call another ball and pocket, follow these steps:

1. Press A to activate your phantom ball.

2. Press Select and A to initiate the call ball sequence. A circle appears around the currently called ball.

3. Use the Control Pad to move the cursor to another ball, then press A.

4. To change the called pocket, use the Control Pad to move the cursor to another pocket, then press A.

5. Press A again to shoot.

Note: In some games, a single arrow appears to show the legal ball or pocket. You cannot move the single arrow.
HISTORY OF THE SPORT OF BILLIARDS

The sport of billiards, or pool, has been popular since the 15th Century. Originally played only by kings and noblemen, pool started as a lawn game similar to croquet. The general public quickly adopted it, however, and brought it indoors, on to a wooden table covered with green cloth to simulate grass. Rails, supposed to resemble river banks, were added to the table to keep the balls from rolling off. Shots made by bouncing balls off the rails, or "banks," came to be called "bank shots."

The term "billiard" is probably derived from the French "billard" for wooden stick. Instead of using croquet mallets, the balls were shaved using wooden sticks called maces. The mace had a large head and was difficult to use when the ball lay near the rail of the table. When this happened, the player would turn the mace around and use the handle to hit the ball. The handle was called a "queue," meaning tail, which later became the modern word "cue."

No one seems to know exactly how billiards came to the United States, but it was probably brought over by the Dutch and English settlers in the 1600's. The game was enjoyed in the Colonies and George Washington reportedly won a match in 1748. Its popularity peaked during the Civil War period, when billiards results received more news coverage than the war. Today, billiard scenes in current movies and novels cause surges in the numbers of new enthusiasts, who flock to local pool halls to try their hand at this age-old skill.

Pool has waged a constant battle for respectability. The very name "pool" means a collective bet or ante, and it was the association with betting practices that sullied the reputation of the game. In the 19th century, a poolroom was a place for betting on horse races. These betting parlors often had pool tables installed so the patrons could pass the time between races. Even though questionable activities were more likely to have come from the betting and not the billiards, the two became connected in the public mind.

Fortunately, billiards has regained respectability. Contemporary billiard halls cater to upscale clientele, offering quality equipment and expert instruction. Men and women are once again enjoying the game of kings and queens.
14.1 CONTINUOUS

GAME DESCRIPTION:
Each player must call both the ball and the pocket. You get a point for every correctly called, legally pocketed ball, and continue a turn until you miss or foul.

OBJECT:
The first player to score a set number of points (15, 25, 50, 100, or 150) wins the game.

RULES:
- The first player must either call which ball will be pocketed, or make the cue ball hit the balls and then a cushion, plus make two object balls hit a cushion. If this isn't done, a two point penalty is assessed.
- Illegally pocketed balls are spotted with no penalty.
- A player who gets three fouls in three successive shots is assessed a 15 point penalty. The foul count is then cleared to zero.

ROTATION

GAME DESCRIPTION:
Each ball has a point value equal to its number. The lowest numbered ball must be hit first.

OBJECT:
The player with the most points wins the game.

RULES:
- The cue ball must contact the lowest numbered ball first; any legally pocketed ball counts.
- You don't have to call the shots.
- You keep shooting until you miss or foul.
- You lose after three consecutive fouls.
FIFTEEN BALL

GAME DESCRIPTION: In Fifteen Ball the player does not have to call either the ball or the pocket. Scores are awarded based on the numerical value of the ball.

OBJECT: The player who scores the greatest number of points (usually involves pocketing the balls with the highest numerical value) wins the game.

RULES:
- You shoot until you miss.
- After the break, the cue ball must hit an object ball and either pocket it or the cue ball must hit the cushion.

STRAIGHT POOL

GAME DESCRIPTION: Straight Pool is a combination between Continuous and Fifteen. While the player does not have to call the object ball as in Continuous, the pocket does not need to be called. Each ball pocketed in one count or score.

OBJECT: The player who scores eight balls before the opponent does wins the game.

RULES:
- You shoot until you miss.
- You must call the object ball but don’t need to call the pocket.
EQUAL OFFENSE

GAME DESCRIPTION:
There are a set number of rounds (1, 3, 5, 7, or 10) with a maximum of 20 points per inning. You shoot until you miss, foul, or pocket the maximum number of allowed balls for each inning.

OBJECT:
The player who scores the most points after a set number of innings wins the game.

RULES:
- You can shoot any ball but must call both the ball and the pocket.
- Additionally pocketed balls do count toward the score.
- The player shoots until he misses.
- The shooting order depends on the score of the previous inning, with the highest scorer shooting first. If a tie, the order remains the same.
- "Sudden death" determines the winner if there is a tie at the end of the set number of rounds.

SPEED POOL

GAME DESCRIPTION:
In Speed Pool the player does not have to call either the ball or the pocket. Scores are awarded based on the time taken to pocket the balls.

OBJECT:
The player who pockets all 15 balls in the fastest time wins the game. In Challenge, you must beat the clock.

RULES:
- Each player keeps shooting until all balls are pocketed.
- If you scratch, you get the cue ball in hand anywhere on the table and keep going.
GLOSSARY OF BILLIARD TERMS

BALL IN HAND. Cue ball can be put into play anywhere on table.

BANK SHOT. A shot where the object ball is bounced against a cushion before it is pocketed.
