Description

This auction is for an ultra rare Atari 2600 vibrating Joystick and a movie called Vibrating Atari 2600 Joystick Gone Wild. First off let me give you some background information. It seems like every new system has a vibrating controller. This includes the Xbox, Playstation 1 and 2, and Dreamcast. Us folks who love Atari were just left hanging. Not anymore! I have developed this exciting vibrating Atari 2600 Joystick. This is used and is working. The auction also includes a movie.

I took this vibrating joystick all around the world over the last year and made a movie called Vibrating Atari 2600 Joystick Gone Wild. There is video from Spring Break in Florida, Cancun, and Texas. There is also video from college parties and dorm rooms. You will love this movie.

There is no charge for shipping, but this must be picked up at the Classic Gaming Expo that takes place at Jackie Gaughan's Plaza Hotel in Las Vegas. This will be available for picjup on either Saturday, August 9 or Sunday, August 10th.

I will only accept payment in the form of game tokens from any arcade. I will not accept PayPal for this auction.

This is a one of a kind joystick and movie. These are the only ones ever made and this will only be sold here. This will be rated a rarity 10 in the 8th edition of Digital Press.

This is sold as is with all sales final as the joystick is sticky because the last time it was used the girl who was playing with it was eating glazed donuts from the place that has the hot light on. I previously had modified this joystick for use with a car battery, but the girl who was using it was severely injured because of the strong vibration, but I have since taken off that modification. You can see her injury happen in the video. Batteries are not included.
